

Welsh Language Standards

Annual Report

2019-2020

Implementing the Welsh Language Standards in the Police & Crime Commissioner's Team

Introduction

Since March 2017 the Police & Crime Commissioner for South Wales and his team have been required to comply with the 'Welsh Language Standards' imposed by the Welsh Language Commissioner. These are outlined in the Police & Crime Commissioner's legal compliance notice, which can be accessed on our website.

Since their introduction we have been pleased to embrace the spirit of the Standards and the opportunities they offer to enable the people of South Wales to use their language of choice when they engage with us. We have also been keen to promote the Standards in the workplace to encourage our own staff to use the Welsh language where they can.

This document provides an overview of the work that has taken place to comply with the Standards and promote Welsh language inclusivity during the financial year 2019-2020.

Internal Oversight

We operate a Welsh Language Working Group, which is chaired by the Strategic Lead for Scrutiny, Assurance & Equality. This Group is responsible for ongoing monitoring and oversight of our compliance and progress in relation to Welsh language inclusivity. The group members act as 'Champions' for the Welsh language within their own portfolio areas, and play a role in awareness-raising of the Standards across the team. The group feeds up to the full team meetings within the Commissioner's team to ensure that Welsh language issues are embedded in our governance structures.

As far as possible we work collaboratively with South Wales Police in promoting language inclusivity.

Embedding the Standards in 2019/20

The Police & Crime Commissioner and team have been working hard, via the internal Welsh Language Working Group, to ensure that Welsh language inclusivity is a key part of our service delivery to the public and the culture of our team.

New staff members of the Police & Crime Commissioner continue to be provided with awareness sessions on the Welsh Language Standards and how they need to be implemented. All staff are also provided with a comprehensive Guidance document, developed by the working group, to support them with their individual Welsh language responsibilities.

All staff are given access to a range of Welsh language information and materials in order to provide a consistent service to the public. Practical steps have also been taken to ensure we are best placed to provide a positive Welsh language service. Examples have included the introduction of a new telephony system that enables people to select their language choice and the dissemination of a library of useful Welsh language phrases for all staff.

The internal working group continues to monitor the Standards' implementation as a matter of course.

Service Delivery Standards

We work to meet our 'Service Delivery' standards through a number of measures, including:

- A standard 'contact us' format on our documents to outline that correspondence is welcomed in Welsh and English
- The provision of footnotes at the bottom of emails and letterheads to explain that we welcome correspondence in Welsh and English.
- Welsh speakers indicate their ability to speak Welsh on email footers.
- Email signatures, 'out of office' email messages and voicemails to main landline numbers are bilingual.
- All callers to the Commissioner's team main line are greeted with a bilingual greeting. They are then provided with assistance in the Welsh language until such a point as this is no longer possible due to lack of available Welsh speakers or the need to converse with a subject matter expert without Welsh language ability. All callers in Welsh are treated with courtesy and respect and we do all we can to provide a positive service.
- When we contact people for the first time and are not aware of their language preference we ask them if they wish to communicate with us in Welsh. This applies unless contact has already been received in English from that person or their language preference is already known.
- A system to record the details of those that inform us they wish to communicate with us in Welsh.
- All public meetings, events and conferences provide the opportunity of conversing in Welsh. Individuals are required to inform us of their wish to communicate in Welsh by a specified date in order that we can arrange simultaneous translation facilities appropriately.
- Standard use documents used within the team are bilingual.
- Tweets from the Commissioner's Twitter account (@commissionersw) are bilingual.
- Our policy for awarding grants takes account of the need to consider and promote the Welsh language in the awarding process.

Of note during 2019/20:

- We conducted a high number of public engagement sessions with the public, including attendance at community events and fun days. At all our events, we promoted use of the Welsh language and actively offered Welsh language services to everyone that attended. We were pleased that members of the public, including young people, were engaging with us in the Welsh language.
- We decided to review our telephony system, which enables external callers to select whether they wish to communicate with us in Welsh or English. The review should enable even easier access to us and will make it easy for us to keep a record of language preference.
- We have continued to sponsor the Commissioner's Personal Assistant to learn Welsh for a 2 year period in order to enhance the frontline Welsh language service that can be provided by the team.
- We launched a new website, which is fully bilingual.

- The Commissioner has undertaken a number of media interviews in the Welsh language.

We have not received any complaints in relation to the Service Delivery Standards in this reporting period.

Policy Making Standards

We work to meet our ‘Policy Making’ standards through a number of measures, including:

- When policies or projects are established or reviewed and are subjected to an ‘Equality Impact Assessment’ (EIA) process, this includes an assessment of Welsh language implications, including opportunities to promote the Welsh language.
- New staff are provided with awareness-raising sessions to ensure they use the Equality/Welsh Language Impact Assessment process effectively.
- Consultation or research take opportunities to invite views on how we could promote use of the Welsh language. Since the introduction of the Standards this has taken place internally, with staff providing views on how we can promote the language.

Of note during 2019/20:

- We provided Welsh Language Inclusivity training sessions to new starters and refresher training to existing staff. This included training on how to assess policies and projects for their impact on the Welsh language.

We have not received any complaints in relation to the Policy Making Standards in this reporting period.

Operational Standards

We work to meet our ‘Operational’ standards through a number of measures, including:

- Members of staff are offered the opportunity to receive HR documents in Welsh or to conduct HR processes in Welsh. To date no members of staff have requested this facility.
- Internal Welsh language spellcheck facilities are available for Welsh speaker use.
- When we go out to advert for any post we undergo a process to assess the Welsh language skills required for the post. The assessment outcomes are provided overleaf.
- Recruitment processes are offered bilingually.
- All new staff members that join the Commissioner’s Team are briefed on the Welsh Language Standards requirements and processes at induction.
- Refresher Welsh Language Standards compliance sessions are provided as necessary during the year
- A Welsh in the Workplace Policy outlines how the Welsh language will be promoted amongst the Commissioner’s team.

Of note during 2019/20:

- We provided Welsh Language Inclusivity training sessions to new starters and refresher training to existing staff. This included training on how to ensure all members of the public and internal staff are provided with opportunities to use the Welsh language and that all Welsh Language Standards are adhered to.

We have not received any complaints in relation to the Operational Standards in this reporting period.

Record Keeping Standards

We work to meet our 'Record Keeping' standards through a number of measures, including:

- We keep records of information relating to our Welsh Language Standards compliance notice. For example, we keep a record of the numbers of complaints in relation to our compliance, as well as a record of the number of Welsh speaking members of staff and the number of advertised vacancies assessed for Welsh language skills (and the assessment outcomes).

To meet the requirements of our Record Keeping Standards we provide the below information in relation to this reporting period:

Recording Requirement	Number
The number of our employees who have Welsh language skills	7 members of staff indicate that they have Welsh language skills (nearly fluent or fluent). This represents 22% of staff members.
The number of new and vacant posts that we advertised during this reporting period that were categorised as posts where Welsh language skills were essential	0
The number of new and vacant posts that we advertised during this reporting period that were categorised as posts where Welsh language skills needed to be learnt when appointed to the post	0
The number of new and vacant posts that we advertised during this reporting period that were categorised as posts where Welsh language skills were desirable	14 (internal and external vacancies)
The number of new and vacant posts that we advertised during this reporting period that were categorised as posts where Welsh language skills were not necessary	0
The number of employees that attended training courses conducted in Welsh during the reporting period	0

Complaints

We have an established policy for dealing with any complaints regarding adherence to the Welsh Language Standards and this can be found on our website. We have received no complaints relating to the Welsh language in this reporting period.

Conclusion

The Welsh Language Standards are an important aspect of the team's equality and inclusion work. We are working well to adhere to the standards as part of our usual business and we are committed to ensuring that language inclusivity is part of our culture. However, we are aware that we may not always get things right and we welcome the views of our communities and staff about how we could improve.
